

Imagine all you can see and do in England, Scotland and Wales from breathtaking views of rolling country sides, incredible castles and bustling cities by travelling on the rail networks of Great Britain.

The Britrail Flexi Pass is a Flexi Pass valid for any 3, 4, 8 or 15 days unlimited travel within a 2 month period. Travel days may be used consecutively or non consecutively.

A day of rail travel is a 24 hour period from midnight to midnight. This allows for unlimited travel on any number of trains for each day of use.

General information

- To start using the pass it must be validated at a British train station before your first journey.
- Each further day of travel must be entered on your pass before you board the train.
- If on any day you travel on an overnight train that departs after 7pm and don't change trains before midnight then you only have to enter the following day on your Pass.
- This pass does not cover the London Underground

Are passholder seat reservations compulsory?

Seat reservations on trains within Britain are not compulsory they are optional. You can purchase your rail pass and just simply hop on the train you wish to travel on. Of course it depends on which class you purchase. If you purchase First class then you can sit anywhere in First class and the same rule applies for a Second class pass. If you have a certain date and time you would like to travel on then you can reserve a seat. Note: we generally cannot book seat reservations on trains within Britain if the journey is shorter than 2hrs. We also cannot book overnight services in Britain.
