

Alleo

Alleo services are TGV and ICE trains that link 25 destinations in France and Germany to Paris in less than 3 hours, of which 16 are in less than 2 hours!

Travel Details

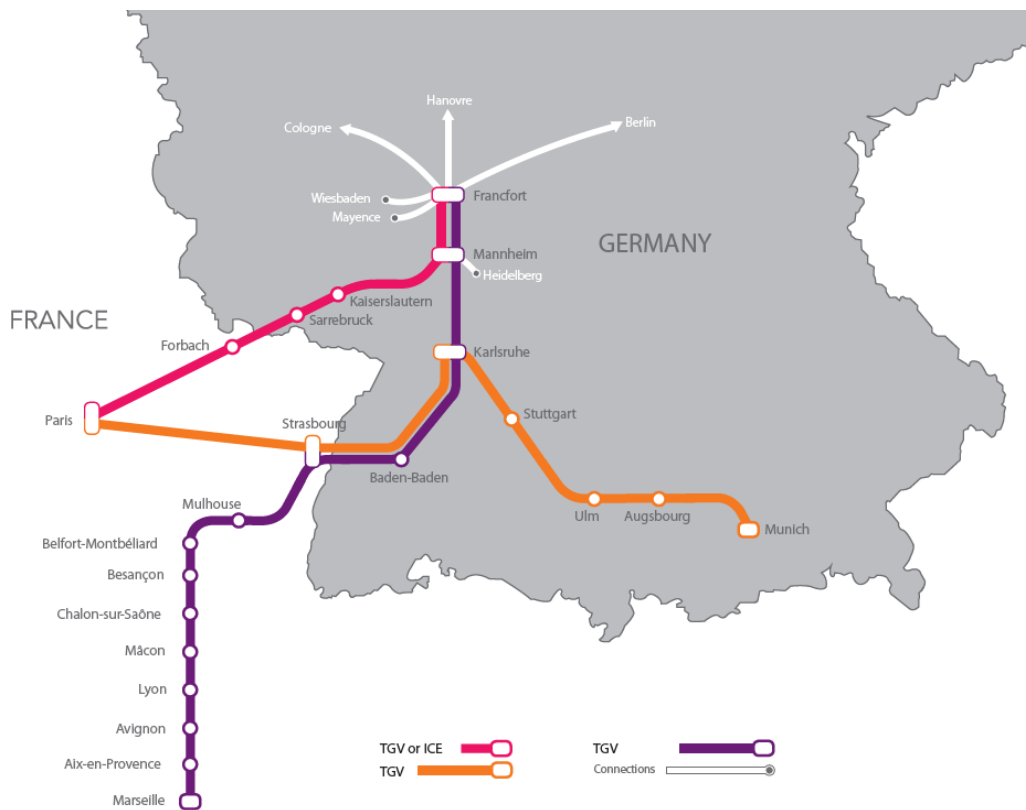

Routing	Travel Times
Paris <> Karlsruhe	2h32
Paris <> Stuttgart	3h40
Paris <> Munich	6h06
Paris <> Kaiserslautern	2h30
Paris <> Mannheim	3h10
Paris <> Frankfurt	3h38
Marseille <> Frankfurt	7h44
Lyon <> Frankfurt	5h54
Lyon <> Mannheim	5h14
Lyon <> Karlsruhe	4h42
Lyon <> Baden-Baden	4h18

Rules

- Alleo trains can be reserved 180 days prior to the train departure date.
- Reservations are compulsory. All single tickets purchased include a seat reservation in the price. Tickets need to be validated using the automatic stamping machines at the beginning of the platform prior to boarding the train.
- Eurail Passholders are welcome. However a seat reservation fee is compulsory.

ALLEO SERVICES (TGV & ICE)

The train you will travel on depends on the route. Check the map & services below:

Onboard services	ICE 3	Classic TGV	EuroDuplex
Train managers fluent in English, French and German	V	V	V
Audio connection in both classes	V	-	-
Access to a bar-buffet car	V	V	V
At-seat power outlets	V	V	V
Snacks & beverages vending machines in the trains	-	V	-
Paris metro tickets on sale at the bar-buffet	V	V	V

ICE

- The ICE running on the northern route of TGV Est line are the latest generation of ICE: ICE3.

TGV

- Newly refurbished trains by Christian Lacroix
- They have 8 cars totalling 360 seats: 110 in 1st class and 250 in 2nd class.

TGV Duplex

- Double deck trains totalling 509 seats
- More legroom than classic TGV trains and digital screens on-board

